The Education Quality and Accountability Office (EQAO) is seeking an Education Officer in the Primary and Junior Assessment French Language Team. If you are an experienced, high-performing educator with excellent French Language curriculum and assessment knowledge and understanding, consider joining the EQAO.

EQAO, an arms-length agency of the Ministry of Education is responsible for the large-scale assessment program in Ontario. The provincial assessments administered in the Primary Division (Grade 3), Junior Division (Grade 6), Grade 9 and OSSLT are written, reviewed, designed and implemented by teachers.

What can I expect to do in this role?

You will:

- review policies relating to assessing, evaluating and reporting student achievement in literacy across the province
- plan and lead large-scale education assessment projects
- design and develop assessment materials and tools, including test items, scoring guides, and training plans
- analyze and report on the results of provincial, national and international assessment of student achievements to support high-level decision-making
- lead consultations and participate on committees with a variety of education stakeholders (e.g. teachers, parents, principals)

How do I qualify?

Mandatory

- You are proficient in verbal and written French at the Superior level.

Education sector knowledge:

- You have knowledge of pedagogy and elementary/secondary school systems as they relate to student achievement in literacy.
- You have experience applying educational theories, professional principles and practices to develop tool and resource materials.
- You have experience incorporating most recent technological methods to meet pedagogical requirements

Policy, research and analytical skills:

- You have experience incorporating education policies into assessment strategies and resources.
- You can apply research techniques, statistics, test theory, and sampling theory to analyze provincial, national and international data and outcomes.
- You can research, analyze, assess and compare data to develop recommendations.

Communication, consultation, and negotiation skills:

- You can lead consultations and develop consensus and understanding with stakeholders (e.g. teachers, parents, principals) who may have opposing needs and positions.
- You can communicate information clearly to a variety of audiences.
- You have strong writing skills to prepare and edit resource and technical materials, briefing notes, reports, and presentations.

Project management and leadership skills:

- You have experience leading projects and managing all phases of project work.
- You can provide project leadership and technical guidance to staff.
